The Father-Son Camp is for boys of all ages and skill levels and their fathers. The camp is designed to provide fathers and sons quality time centered on the game they both love and to help fathers teach their sons basketball fundamentals during and after the camp. The camp will cover every facet of the game and emphasize skill and technical development. Under the supervision of the camp staff, fathers will take an active role in the teaching process and participate in stations, drills, and games. The weekend camp will include skills contests and 2-on-2 games between father-son teams. Fathers and sons will eat meals together throughout the weekend, including a BBQ at the conclusion of camp on Sunday afternoon. There will also be a fathers-only session focusing on positive ways to encourage your son's skill development and enjoyment of competitive athletics. Participants will also receive
